

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!

The Japanese Garden Society has so many thanks to make this year – to the wonderful volunteers who help with so many aspects of the project, to the many Salt Spring Islanders who have volunteered to help in the future, to those who generously donated money, to the businesses and individuals who donated gifts for the raffle, who have pledged plants, and who have given freely of their expertise.

Special acknowledgement needs to be given to:

- Salt Spring Island Foundation
- PARC
- Island Opportunity Fund
- National Association of Japanese Canadians
- Kathy Reimer and Salt Spring Salmon Enhancement
- Wolfe Milner Land Surveyors
- Tim and John at Island Star Video
- Victoria Nikkei Foundation
- the Murakami family
- the Tasaka family
- Oro Landscape Design
- Toshimasa Ito
- Yarrow Sheehan and her class at GISS
- Steve Peterson
- Carol Dodd
- Ganges Village Market
- Board members and regular members who have worked so hard this year, with special thanks to Joni, Pat, Debbie, Rumi, Peter, Rose, Maggie, Jim, Joanne, Mearnie and Caffyn.

GISS students Jimmy Yuen and Tsun Tsang at work on an historical map of Japanese Canadian farms on Salt Spring Island